

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Crimewatch Safeguard Security Systems Ltd (the company) is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery from within its own business and that from within its supplier chain. The company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organization and with suppliers of goods and services to the organization.

The organizational structure of the business is to provide security services nationally within the supply chain of these services there are relationships with external businesses for the sourcing of products annually as well as suppliers of services make up the supply chain within the company.

As part of the company's due diligence processes into Slavery and Human Trafficking the suppliers approval process will incorporate a review of controls undertaken by the suppliers, the level of management control required for these sources will be continually monitored under our ISO 9001 Quality Management System which is audited internally and externally. The company also subscribes to the UN Global Compact and annually publishes its Communication of Progress (COP)

The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in Slavery or Human Trafficking.

The Company Directors and Senior Management shall take the responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resource (training etc.) and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organization and within its supply chains.

Original created April 2016 - Reviewed 8th January 2018 and 2019 - This policy statement will be reviewed annually and published.

Signed: J D Norminton

Date: Tuesday, January 09, 2018

Name: Jerry Norminton

Position: Director